

JAMES FOX HIGGINS

"soul on tap, funk in spades and oh so tight"

James Fox Higgins has been writing and recording original songs since age 13 when he acquired his first CASIO keyboard and nylon-string guitar, and started teaching himself to play both instruments, sing, arrange and record music on a 4-track cassette recorder.

Fast forward about two decades, and James has carved himself a niche in the Australian entertainment scene as a tour-de-force singer, band leader, songwriter, producer and original artist. Having toured all over the country and internationally, James has gained notoriety through his involvement with bands Nude Continuum, and its rebooted iteration Soul Continuum, and as a solo artist. James Fox Higgins will have your crowd on their feet, dancing, clapping, stomping and singing along!

Available as Solo through to an 6 piece band.
